DEFENDANT'S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR LEAVE TO EXCEED THE PAGE LIMIT

Pursuant to Rules 5.4(b)(1) and 7 of the Rules of the United States Court of Federal Claims (RCFC), the United States respectfully requests leave to exceed the page limitation for our forthcoming omnibus motion to dismiss these actions. Pursuant to the Court's January 12, 2018 and June 21, 2018 scheduling orders, we are filing one omnibus motion to dismiss 12 separate complaints on August 1, 2018. We request leave to file an omnibus brief of up to 85 pages in length, or 45 pages in excess of the 40-page limitation in Rule 5.4(b)(1) of the RCFC. Counsel for plaintiffs in the twelve aforementioned actions state that they do not oppose this motion.¹

Good cause exists to grant the requested relief. Plaintiffs, owners of common and preferred shares in the Federal National Mortgage Association (Fannie Mae) and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (Freddie Mac), allege that an amendment to a stock purchase agreement between the Department of the Treasury and the Federal Housing Finance Agency frustrated plaintiffs' "economic interests" in their Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac stock. Plaintiffs have filed 12 separate complaints in this Court containing over 50 claims, including claims for takings, illegal exaction, breach of fiduciary duty, and breach of contract. Because we are filing an omnibus motion to dismiss all 12 complaints for lack of jurisdiction and for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, the additional 45 pages are necessary to meaningfully address plaintiffs' claims and the various arguments meriting their dismissal.²

For these reasons, the United States respectfully requests that the Court grant this unopposed motion for leave to exceed the page limitation in Rule 5.4(b)(1) of the RCFC.

Respectfully submitted,

MICHAEL S. RAAB Acting Deputy Assistant Attorney General

² Indeed, had we filed separate motions to each of 12 complaints, we would have been entitled to 480 pages of briefing.
