ORDER

On September 17, 2020, plaintiff filed an opposed motion for a stay of briefing on defendant’s motion to dismiss so that he may obtain jurisdictional and other discovery. Plaintiff relies on Rule 56(d) of the Rules of the United States Court of Federal Claims (“RCFC”). Plaintiff’s motion must be briefed before the court can rule on his motion, and, given the upcoming deadline for plaintiff’s response to defendant’s motion to dismiss, it is reasonable to stay plaintiff’s response to defendant’s motion to dismiss for the time being.

Accordingly, the court SUSPENDS briefing on defendant’s motion to dismiss until further order of the court. Briefing of plaintiff’s motion shall proceed pursuant to the rules of the court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
