IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF FEDERAL CLAIMS

MICHAELE KELLY	)
MICHAEL E. KELLY, et al.,	)
Plaintiffs,	)	No. 21-1949
	)
V.	)	Filed: June 23, 2022
THE UNITED STATES,	)
Defendant.	)
	)

ORDER

On November 29, 2021, the Court granted the parties' motion to stay proceedings in this matter pending the appeal in Washington Federal v. United States, No. 2020-2190 (Fed. Cir.). See ECF No. 8. Pursuant to that order, the parties filed a Joint Status Report on June 22, 2022, informing the Court that the Federal Circuit's decision in Washington Federal is now final and not subject to further appellate review. See ECF No. 10. They proposed a schedule for briefing the Government's forthcoming motion to dismiss.

Having reviewed the parties' proposal, the Court LIFTS THE STAY and ORDERS the following schedule:

- The Government shall file its Motion to Dismiss by September 2, 2022.
- Plaintiffs shall file their Response to the Government's Motion by October 14, 2022.
- The Government shall file its Reply in support of its Motion by November 10, 2022.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: June 23, 2022

/s/Kathryn C. Davis

KATHRYN C. DAVIS

Judge